

INTEGRATED MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

Leartiker, S.Coop. is a private and non-profit technology center specialized in Food Technology and Polymer Technology. Our mission is to add value to the business sector through our R&D&I activity and its appropriate transfer. Based on an open innovation model, we build the Leartiker project in a collaborative way, transforming knowledge into added value, facilitating diversification processes, and generating new jobs, mainly at the local level.

At Leartiker we combine research and technology transfer activities by generating knowledge through the different research lines of our technological specializations and collaborating with companies with the aim of providing them with competitive value in the following areas:

Food Technology:

- Dairy: New cheeses and dairy derivatives, advanced technical advice, and specialized training, fostering diversification and competitiveness of small producers and foster to them a passion for innovation.
- PREST: New healthy and sustainable value-added products made from local raw materials of plant or animal origin.

Polymer Technology:

- Health: New biocompatible polymeric materials for use in medical devices.
- Sustainable Transportation: Lightweight, reliable, and silent polymeric structures, and prediction of their behavior through digitalization techniques.

Leartiker and this integrated management policy come together with the objective of meeting the expectations of the people who belong to the Leartiker project, our main asset. We seek and cover the continuous improvement of the organization, providing a frame of reference for the establishment of the objectives of the Integrated Management System, grounded and supported by our values: INVOLVEMENT, TRUST, SERVICE ORIENTATION, POSITIVISM, AND SCIENTIFIC RIGOR.

Leartiker's management shows its commitment to the leadership, compliance, development, maintenance, and continuous improvement of this policy, promoting consultation and participation in the matter, being essential the involvement, collaboration, participation, and awareness of all the people who form Leartiker, promoting the culture of continuous improvement and complying with the applicable requirements.

As proof of support and approval, I subscribe to this Integrated Management Policy.
